Free workshop will help Corvallis area seniors and their families protect themselves against insurance and financial abuse

Seniors citizens are often targets for deceptive sales practices or scams because many of them have accumulated large sums of money from a lifetime of savings and asset appreciation.

To help seniors and their families learn how to avoid insurance and financial abuse, the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services (DCBS) is holding a free workshop this month in Corvallis. The workshop will be from 2 - 3 p.m. Thursday, October 25, at the Corvallis Senior Center, 2601 NW Tyler Ave. It will cover how to:

- recognize predatory marketing techniques used by insurance agents and security brokers,
- choose insurance and financial products suitable for your needs, and
- avoid scams.

Registration is encouraged but not required. To register, please call 503-947-7201 or e-mail nameun.house@state.or.us.

The workshop is part of the department's SAFE program: Senior and Family Education on Insurance and Financial Issues.
