RULE SUMMARY

This rulemaking corrects an oversight in a rule adopted on February 4, 2011 in a rulemaking to address annual financial statements required for self-insured groups established by three or more public bodies. The rules apply to self-insurance programs that are exempt from the Insurance Code under ORS 30.282 and 731.036.

In order to be exempt, the self-insurance program must meet certain financial requirements related to reserve adequacy provisions. To demonstrate compliance with those requirements, a qualified actuary must submit a written actuarial report. Under the rules as originally adopted, "qualified actuary" defines the qualifications for an actuary submitting a report for property or casualty self-insurance exempt under ORS 30.282(6)(d) and 731.036(4) and (5). However, the rules failed to define "qualified actuary" for purposes of self-insured health coverage exempt under ORS 731.036 (6). This is in error as it would be inappropriate for a property or casualty actuary to submit the report for health insurance. This rulemaking adds a definition for a qualified actuary submitting the report for health insurance.
